

SIMPLE SENTENCES

Learn English Step by Step

BOOK 1

Present • Past • Future

CATEGORY NO. 1 & CATEGORY NO. 2

By Deedar Quambrani

For beginner English learners

Learn simple sentence patterns through comparison, examples, speaking and practice.

The Method of This Book

We begin with simple sentence patterns. Students learn the appropriate arrangement of words to make meaningful sentences. Each pattern is compared in Present, Past and Future.

The first two categories in this book are:

Category No. 1 — BE: is / am / are → was / were → will be

Category No. 2 — HAVE: have / has → had → will have Read every example aloud. Notice what changes and what remains the same.

Category No. 1 — BE

Present: Subject + is/am/are + Complement

Past: Subject + was/were + Complement

Future: Subject + will be + Complement

Examples — Same idea in three tenses

Present	Past	Future
I am happy.	I was happy.	I will be happy.
I am tired.	I was tired.	I will be tired.
She is my cousin.	She was my cousin.	She will be my cousin.
I am Ali.	I was Ali.	I will be Ali.
Mother is at home.	Mother was at home.	Mother will be at home.
They are ready.	They were ready.	They will be ready.
We are students.	We were students.	We will be students.
The clothes are ironed.	The clothes were ironed.	The clothes will be ironed.
The clothes are torn.	The clothes were torn.	The clothes will be torn.
The glass is broken.	The glass was broken.	The glass will be broken.
The food is spoiled.	The food was spoiled.	The food will be spoiled.
The food is cooked.	The food was cooked.	The food will be cooked.
The chilies are ground.	The chilies were ground.	The chilies will be ground.
The clothes are scattered.	The clothes were scattered.	The clothes will be scattered.

Category No. 1 — Positive, Negative & Questions

Present

Positive: She is happy.

Negative: She is not happy.

Question: Is she happy?

Negative Question: Is she not happy?

Past

Positive: She was happy.

Negative: She was not happy.

Question: Was she happy?

Negative Question: Was she not happy?

Future

Positive: She will be happy.

Negative: She will not be happy.

Question: Will she be happy?

Negative Question: Will she not be happy?

Key point

In questions, the to-be verb comes before the subject.

Category No. 2 — HAVE

Present: Subject + have/has + Complement

Past: Subject + had + Complement

Future: Subject + will have + Complement

Examples — Same idea in three tenses

Present	Past	Future
I have a book.	I had a book.	I will have a book.
I have a pen.	I had a pen.	I will have a pen.
She has a bag.	She had a bag.	She will have a bag.
He has a bicycle.	He had a bicycle.	He will have a bicycle.
We have a house.	We had a house.	We will have a house.
They have a car.	They had a car.	They will have a car.
Mother has a cup.	Mother had a cup.	Mother will have a cup.
Father has a watch.	Father had a watch.	Father will have a watch.
The boy has a ball.	The boy had a ball.	The boy will have a ball.
The girl has a doll.	The girl had a doll.	The girl will have a doll.
I have two brothers.	I had two brothers.	I will have two brothers.
She has a new dress.	She had a new dress.	She will have a new dress.
We have enough food.	We had enough food.	We will have enough food.

Category No. 2 — Positive, Negative & Questions

Present

Positive: She has a book.

Negative: She does not have a book.

Question: Does she have a book?

Negative Question: Does she not have a book?

Past

Positive: She had a book.

Negative: She did not have a book.

Question: Did she have a book?

Negative Question: Did she not have a book?

Future

Positive: She will have a book.

Negative: She will not have a book.

Question: Will she have a book?

Negative Question: Will she not have a book?

Key point

After does or did, use have, not has or had.

Practice — Category No. 1

A. Complete the sentences.

1. I ____ happy. (Present)
2. I ____ happy. (Past)
3. I ____ happy. (Future)
4. Mother ____ at home. (Present)
5. Mother ____ at home. (Past)
6. Mother ____ at home. (Future)

B. Change into the other two tenses.

1. The glass is broken. → Past: _____ → Future: _____
2. The food was cooked. → Present: _____ → Future: _____
3. The clothes will be torn. → Present: _____ → Past: _____

C. Make negative sentences.

1. She is happy. → _____
2. She was happy. → _____
3. She will be happy. → _____

D. Make questions.

1. They are ready. → _____
2. They were ready. → _____
3. They will be ready. → _____

Practice — Category No. 2

A. Complete the sentences.

1. I ____ a book. (Present)
2. She ____ a bag. (Present)
3. We ____ a house. (Past)
4. They ____ a car. (Past)
5. He ____ a bicycle. (Future)
6. Mother ____ a cup. (Future)

B. Change into the other two tenses.

1. I have a pen. → Past: _____ → Future: _____
2. She had a bag. → Present: _____ → Future: _____
3. They will have a car. → Present: _____ → Past: _____

C. Make negative sentences.

1. She has a book. → _____
2. She had a book. → _____
3. She will have a book. → _____

D. Make questions.

1. She has a book. → _____
2. She had a book. → _____
3. She will have a book. → _____

Quick Review

CATEGORY NO. 1 — BE

Present: Subject + is/am/are + Complement

Past: Subject + was/were + Complement

Future: Subject + will be + Complement

Example: I am happy. → I was happy. → I will be happy.

CATEGORY NO. 2 — HAVE

Present: Subject + have/has + Complement

Past: Subject + had + Complement

Future: Subject + will have + Complement

Example: I have a book. → I had a book. → I will have a book.

Your Goal

Read the sentences aloud. Compare the same idea in Present, Past and Future. Then make your own sentences using the two patterns.

Book 1 — Simple Sentences

Category No. 1: BE • Category No. 2: HAVE

By Deedar Quambrani