

SIMPLE SENTENCES

Learn English Step by Step

BOOKS

By Deedar Quambrani

For beginner English learners

Learn sentence patterns, make positive and negative sentences, ask questions, and practise with simple examples.

Lesson 1: What is a Simple Sentence?

HAPPY

A simple sentence gives one complete idea. It normally has a subject and a verb, and it may also have a complement.

Basic pattern:

Subject + Verb + Complement

Examples

- I am happy.
- I am tired.
- She is my cousin.
- I am Ali.

Remember: Start with a capital letter and finish a sentence with a full stop (.)

Lesson 2: Subject + To-Be Verb + Complement

Pattern:

Subject + is / am / are + Complement

Use am with I.

Use is with he, she, it and singular nouns.

Use are with you, we, they and plural nouns.

Examples

- I am happy.
- I am a boy.
- She is my cousin.
- Mother is at home.
- Clothes are ironed.

Lesson 3: Positive, Negative and Question

Positive: I am a boy.

Negative: I am not a boy.

Question: Am I a boy?

Negative Question: Am I not a boy?

More practice

Positive: She is happy.

Negative: She is not happy.

Question: Is she happy?

Positive: They are ready.

Negative: They are not ready.

Question: Are they ready?

Notice how the to-be verb changes position in a question.

Lesson 4: Practice

HOME

A. Complete the sentences.

1. I ____ happy.
2. She ____ my cousin.
3. They ____ ready.
4. Mother ____ at home.
5. We ____ students.

B. Make the sentences negative.
